

Advice 24-2013 of the Scientific Committee of the FASFC on the draft royal decree on food hygiene

The Scientific Committee is asked to evaluate the draft royal decree on food hygiene. The royal decree of 22 December 2005 on food hygiene was completely rewritten taking into account the evolution of the matter in question at both Belgian and European level. To simplify of the legislation, two other decrees concerning food hygiene were included in this draft decree and the three original decrees were abrogated.

The Scientific Committee gives a favorable advice on the present draft royal decree, formulates some specific remarks and answers the questions.
